IRONSIDES—68

CLASS OF 1968
CHARLESTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

CHARLESTOWN · H

FOREWORD

For twelve years of personal guidance, we have been treated as a group of immature children gaining responsibilities and obligations as time went on. Now, as a small group of graduating high school seniors, we enter a new world of burdens and obstacles that must be confronted by all of us in a manner reflecting exceptional breeding and productive schooling.

Now, many of us constantly are harried by the problem--what does the future hold for us. We are fortunate in many respects to be living in a day and age that offers a multitude of fields and opportunities that will provide security and a sense of well being. Many of us will be going on to colleges, universities, business schools, etc. Yet, our time will not let us forget what the men in uniform--the high school and college graduates--that represent their country all over the world meant to the people of the United States.

Moulding the minds and characters are the basic responsibilities of our teachers and parents. The final outcome will be up to each and every graduate. Can you face the future; can you accept the burdens of post-high school education; can you face the responsibilities of a family? The final answers, fellow graduates rests with you.

U. S. S. CONSTITUTION

This year's Yearbook Staff had decided to go creative earlier in the school year. Among the many exceptional ideas that we came up with was the naming of the yearbook, a permanent inclusion, and the designing of our new cover by Fidelis Danilowicz.

The credit of naming the yearbook must go exclusively to our advisor, Miss Cynthia E. Brady. Through her constructive criticism and ingenious handling of our yearbook, this edition was made possible.

DEDICATION 1968

Mr. Arthur J. Sullivan

This was the year of transition at Charlestown High School. Amidst the clamor and confusion of the senior year, we lost our headmaster to the leisurely world of retirement. After six years of devoted service to Charlestown High School, it was a well-deserved and needed rest. Due to the fact that his responsibilities and obligations as the head accountant for the American Baseball League were becoming more demanding, Mr. Sullivan announced retirement from the Boston Public School System in the middle of the 1968 school year. We were very fortunate to have a man of Mr. Power's caliber to pick up where Mr. Sullivan left off.

Mr. Sullivan has left a lasting image in the minds of our senior class. The Yearbook Staff would like to take this opportunity in wishing Mr. Sullivan the best of luck and happiness in his retirement years.

HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE

Frank G. Power, Jr.
Head Master

To the Class of 1968:

I would like to congratulate the Class of 1968 and wish them a successful voyage into the mainstream of life. During the last three years you have travelled together while obtaining your High School Diploma; you have attempted many things with varying degrees of success. The experience gained through these ventures will hold you in good stead as you continue further into the world of post-secondary education, business, or the trades.

I delight in my acquaintance, short though it has been, with the Class of 1968. My wish for you is that health and happiness accompany each of you through life together with those fine Charlestown traditions--pride and loyalty.

May God guide you and bless you in future endeavors.

Frank G. Power, Jr.

History of the Class of '89, C. H. S.

THE class which entered Sept. '86 was the largest in the history of the Charlestown High School. On account of the extra large number of pupils the assistance of two extra teachers was required.

After the study of Botany was commenced many of the pupils became especially interested and enjoyed many pleasant walks in Melrose woods in search of flowers. The Junior year was pleasantly spent under Miss Nye who had charge of the class room.

After the summer vacation the middle year of the present Senior class began. A number of the pupils, wishing to take a course of study preparatory to entering college went to the Latin school.

Several of the young ladies during this year of the course, thinking that the stuay of Shakespeare would be interesting and instructive, formed the "Athena Club" for the purpose of reading the works of that author.

A special Botany class was formed under the direction of Miss Upham.

As the graduating class of '88 were busily engaged in preparing for the diploma examinations the middle class undertook the decoration of the hall for the graduating exercises. Many flowers were procured and together with the gay colored flags the hall presented a very striking appearance.

During this year the class as a whole had studied very faithfully and had perceptably made great progress.

On the 5th of last September the Senior class entered Mr. Norris's room ready to begin a year of faithful work in preparation for the final examinations.

After about two weeks the boys of the senior class nominated the present officers and they were appointed by the headmaster.

The number of boys was smaller than usual as was the case in some of the other High schools. Two single rank companies were formed and a few boys remained. The boys took hold with earnestness and as a reward two well drilled companies from the Charlestown High School Cadets.

SENIORS '68

Taking advantage of their rare opportunity the young ladies of the senior class of '88 and '89 with Miss A. F. Nye and Miss Sarah Shaw as chaperons, gave a leap year party on the last night of the leap year. The order of dance opened at 8 o'clock with the grand march led by Miss Lotta A. Clark as floor director. Soon after mid-night the party broke up, and the young gentlemen took upon themselves the duty of escort which before the party had been performed by the ladies.

The officers of the Charlestown High School gave their Annual Party in the Cadets' Armory, 5th Regiment, on Friday Evening, February 1st. The attendance was large and the affair was a grand success. Many officers of the other schools were present by invitation in uniform, and made a very attractive appearance. The evening was very pleasantly spent and all hoped that another party would soon follow.

A series of public days has been instituted in the Charlestown High School this year. Thursday, February 21, '89, interesting exercises were held in the school hall appropriate to the day before Washington's birthday. The exercises closed with an exhibition drill by Company E, Capt. Howe, and Company K, Capt. Ripley.

March 21, 1889, the senior class met for the purpose of forming a class association. A constitution was formed and the Association was named the "Class of '89 Association, Charlestown High School." Mr. C. D. Sanderson, one of the most popular of the young gentlemen of the Senior Class, was elected president. It was decided that white and orange should be the class colors.

The Shakespeare Club which was formed during the middle year and composed only of young ladies, finding that the young gentlemen were necessary for the best success of the club, invited them to become members. Many pleasant evenings have been spent in reading Shakespeare under the direction of Miss Shaw. When the commissioned officers met to make arrangements for the annual drill, thinking that an exhibition of Calisthenics by the young ladies would be interesting they invited them to take part. A committee was elected by the young ladies of the class, and with the officers of the school they have made arrangements for the Drill and Calisthenics, which, it is hoped will be satisfactory to all.

BOYS.

Among the many "freaks of nature" boy may be mentioned. Many things are odd bu what is so freakish as a boy? One day h will be as accommodating as one can wish, an won't even whistle when the baby cries. Bu on the next!—he will be obstinate in such little matter as carrying a green bandbox o the street without extra wrappings. Beside what boy does not delight to torment his sister or somebody else's sister? They seem t think that girls are made for their specia benefit. Once in a great while they are useful. At dances and parties their presence i acceptable, and a brave boy is good fo driving away obnoxious cows. But these ar exceptional cases. Generally girls could perform all tasks allotted to boys. They coul easily transport whatever coal a boy ordinaril burdens himself with, and as for baseball why, girls could easily run the score right int the "forties", and how much better the game would draw. After boys arrive at years o discretion, they begin to find their wits; but until they do, let's put them in some distant place reserving a few for the above-mentioned accidents, until they attain the "golden age."

"ONE OF THE GIRLS."

IF WE HAD BUT A DAY.

We should fill the hours with the sweetest things,
If we had but a Day;
We should drink alone at the purest springs,
In our upward way.
We should love with a life time's love in an hour,
If the hours were few;
We should rest, not for dreams, but for fresher power,
To be and to do.

We should guide our wayward or wearied wills,
By the clearest light;
We should keep our eyes on the heavenly hills,
If they lay in sight;
We should trample the pride and discontent,
Beneath our feet;
We should take whatever a good God sent,
With a trust complete.

We should waste no moments in weak regret,
If the day were but one;
If what we remember and what we forget,
Went out with the sun;
We should be from our clamorous selves set free,
To work or to pray,
And be what the Father would have us to be,
If we had but a day.

MATHEMATICS

Mr. Pasquale R. Sciaraffa,
Mathematics Instructor.

After school commences on September Fourth, the students and faculty at Charlestown High School will notice as they pass Room 13 that the energetic little fellow who used to scurry around the room trying to bring across mathematical principles to his pupils is and will not longer be a member of the faculty and teaching staff of C.H.S. Yes, Mr. Sciaraffa, the most popular person that ever entered Charlestown High School from the North End, will be teaching at Boston Technical High School. There is no doubt in my mind that his presence will be missed. Yet, we know that wherever he goes, he will always be accepted with a warm heart and kind feelings. It is with great pleasure that I take this opportunity to represent the entire Senior Class of 1968 in wishing the best of luck and many thanks to "OUR MR. SCIARAFFA."

Victor Hugo, the French literary genius, characterized a person of Mr. Sciaraffa's caliber in this fitting phrase:

FOOTBALL

Sheer determination and guts are the prerequisites for Coach Sheeran's boys.

Season Scoop

Mr. Kondos' promotion to the coaching staff at Loyola College brought a surprising change to Charlestown High's football team--Mr. Mike Sheeran. Plagued by injuries and other seasonal mishap, the team ended the season with a 2 wins, 5 losses and 1 tie record. This year's team accomplished two astonishing feats. They tied the phenomenal East Boston team and held "Southie" to 0 and 0 for three quarters of play, the game resulting in a 14 to 0 score. We would like to wish Mr. Sheeran and his coaching staff the best of luck in their next season.

TRACK

A message for Track Captain Jim Curtin:

This year's track team was not a winning team, yet among the ranks of runners from C.H.S. were a multitude of individual champions. The true essence of track is that it is the test of the individual. Although it is the team that benefits, it is the individual who must overcome the physical as well as mental obstacles that stand in the way to victory. It would not be fair to name only those who stood out as champions because in their shadows stand many who gave their all to help the team.

I wish to personally thank all the members of the track team for giving their time and efforts, and I hope that among the incoming sophomores, we will find others with enough spirit to run. To my fellow seniors, I sincerely wish you all the best of luck in the future.

The 1968 edition of the basketball at Charlestown High School proved to be one of the most exciting teams in the high school's history. Exhibiting a run and shoot offense and a tight defense, the team raced to an 8-4 season and barely missed the Tech Tournament. The heartbreaker was a one point loss to Jamaica Plain. The team was tied with Boston English in Conference representatives to the Conference All-Star Team with co-captain John O'Donnell and Al McLaughlin. Dan Crowley, the six foot-four inch center, made the District All-Star Team.

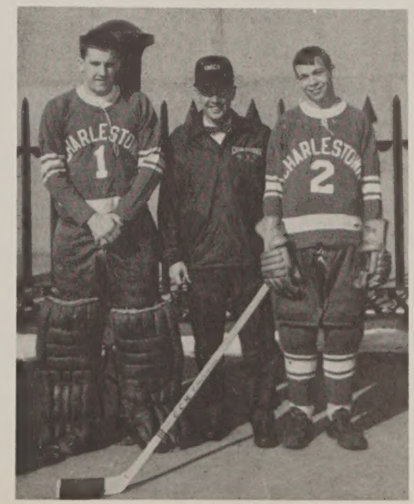
Under the supreme guidance of Coach Giles Threadgold, the Charlestown High School Hockey Team was lead to another District League Championship. In order to exemplify the coaching brilliance of Mr. Threadgold, as we look at his record at C.H.S. we see that he has 54 wins, three ties, and three losses. Among the outstanding players of this year's squad were Paul Brady and J. P. Murphy, first team All District Hockey Team. This was the fifth year that the team has made the State Tourney, losing out by only one goal. An impressive record of accomplishment--I'll say.



Posing with Coach Threadgold are Paul Brady and J. P. Murphy, All District Players.

BASEBALL

By the end of the season, the team had nine remaining players. Yet Coach Sheeran, a new addition to the baseball scene this year at C.H.S., had never once despaired. The results of the season was two wins and eight losses. Don't be led astray by this fact. The scores, being outstandingly outlandish in years before, was considerably closer than before. Mr. Sheeran and the boys deserve a great deal of credit for their devotion. Next year promises a brighter outcome though. Yet in order to accomplish this, the turnout of players must be greater.

CHARLESTOWN

History of the Charlestown High School.

ON the 17th of June, 1848, the original Charlestown High School House was dedicated, and two days after, on June 19th, the school began with 84 pupils. Mr. Caleb Emery was the first Principal.

In September, 1850, Mr. Emery was appointed submaster in the Boston Latin School. He was succeeded in Charlestown by Mr. William H. Bradley, who died after a few weeks of service. Mr. A. M. Gay then took charge of the school for about 10 years, and raised its Scholarship to a very high standard of excellence. At his resignation in 1860, Mr. Gay was succeeded by Mr. Charles E. Stetson, who remained at the head of the school until 1863 when, on his resignation, Mr. Emery was again offered the Mastership, and returned to the position in which he had opened the school in 1848. The present school building was erected in 1870. Mr. Emery resigned the Head Mastership in September, 1885, and was succeeded by Mr. J. O. Norris, the present Head Master.

The Charlestown High School has a three years course, but it is probable that another year will be added.

The Charlestown High School Cadets are one of the institutions of Charlestown. In the opinion of many they form the important part of the High School, at any rate the drill is an inducement to many boys to attend the High School.

ACTIVITIES '68

The Charlestown High School Cadets were organized in 1868 at the suggestion of Charles W. Chase. Two hundred dollars was appropriated by the School Committee for guns and equipments. Charles W. Chase was the first Captain. The next year, owing to the large number of boys, a Battallion was formed with Gideon F. Haynes as the Major, and Robert A. Southworth as the Adjutant. The latter became Major the next year. The first prize drill took place in 1873, and since that time these drills have been held annually with the exception of the years 1877 and 1888.

In 1878 the number of boys was so small that the Battallion was broken up, and a company was organized which was attached to the Highland Battallion, B.S.R.

In 1884 two companies were again organized, one of them was single rank and the other, double rank. In May the single rank company disbanded on account of several of its members leaving the school.

The next year Capt. Calvin Sargent of Company K, had the honor of bringing the first and thus far the only company prize to Charlestown. In the first part of this term a picked squad from this school, drilled against a picked squad from Wakefield, and Corporal Robinson of Co. K, won the prize—a silver medal—although the judges were all from Wakefield.

SEATED: Joanne Lewey, Phyllis Murphy, Denise Carr, Christine Gaudette, and Madeleine Keville. STANDING: Mrs. Rosamond DeSuze, Advisor; John Houlihan, Robert Todd, and Lawrence O'Keeffe.

DEBATING CLUB

The Debating Club had quite a year debating topics causing controversies all over the world. They discussed topics ranging from juvenile drinking, the voting age, to the Viet Nam War. They sponsored the Public Speaking Contest of which the topics were chosen by the student on a subject which interested them. The winner, Lawrence O'Keeffe, was a member of the Debating Club. He represented the High School very well on Student Government Day and made a very nice impression.

SECOND TO NONE!

SEATED: Richard O'Niel, Alice Millar, Irene Rand, Diana Walsh, and Linda Cerra. STANDING: Edward Blake, Lawrence O'Keefe, Mrs. Rosamond Desuze, Advisor; Richard Lapointe, President; and Thomas Nee.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Under the guidance of Mrs. DeSuze, these students had a very busy year setting up a much needed library for the school. They utilized much of their study time for this purpose and the results were very fruitful. A library full of books has been established, the books of many different subjects. There are books to help those who need to study more, books for those who want to study more, and books that can be read for the sole purpose of enjoying to read.

The size of the National Honor Society was small compared with those of other years, but with the help of this new library the number of members should increase as the use of our newly established library does.

The Camera Club 1968

The Camera Club was very active this year. Whenever there were pictures to be taken or films to be shown, you could always count on them to be there. The club is a fun club and very educational. You show movies on current events and on past events. When you take pictures you develop them yourself. which is very long and tedious work. They produce the pictures and can make them any size you want, and they do a fabulous job. They wish the best of luck to next year's group and hope they make it as much fun as they did.

YEARBOOK STAFF 1968

The Yearbook Staff, along with Miss Cynthia Brady, Wish you the best of luck in your future years and hope we have done a little in preserving the past. Your 1968 YEARBOOK IRONSIDES is a book of which the like has never been published before. The whole yearbook has been changed and it is the first time we have ever had a name for our yearbook. We hope you like the changes we have made, for, even though it is different in many ways, we tried to recapture those moments of your senior year which mean so much to you.

1968 CLASS OFFICERS

Secretary--Virginia Pappas
Treasurer--Alice Millar
Vice-President--James Walsh
President--John Gryzlic

This year's senior class has a lot to be thankful for, due to the long and hard work of these people pictured above. They never once forgot their duties, although at times they proved most demanding and trying. It was due to their long thought and searching that they found the place for the prom, the date and menu for the Senior Banquet, and it was their thoughtfulness that made our senior class the best that ever graduated from Charlestown High School.

SEATED: Karen Schofield, Kathleen Dooley, Diana Walsh. STANDING: Robert Eckhardt, John Houlihan, Edward Coughlin, Michael Peters, John Gryzlic, and Lawrence O'Keefe.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST

Public Speaking Contest

This year's Public Speaking Contest was a superb performance of the class of 1968's young people who are concerned with their lives and those of others. They spoke on problems concerning the whole nation, as well as problems concerning international affairs. They spoke of lowering the voting age and why it should be lowered, they spoke of the drinking age being lowered and why the kids of our generation are more mature than those of previous generations.

The winner of the Public Speaking Contest represents our high school at the State House on Student Government Day. We were well represented by our winner, Lawrence O'Keefe, who gave a brilliant speech that amazed the other students.

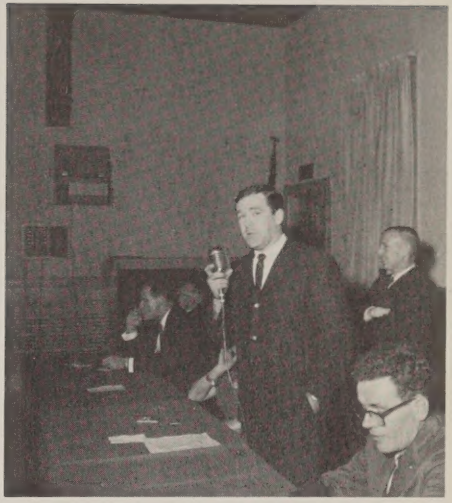
ACHIEVEMENT

The boys at their best!



His first year as Coach.

Mr. Chairman.

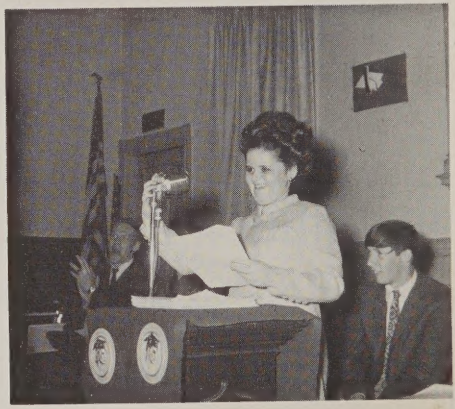
Mr. White: Guest Speaker.

A Magnificent Head Table.

SENIOR CLASS BANQUET

JUST WAIT A MINUTE!

WHO'S NEXT?

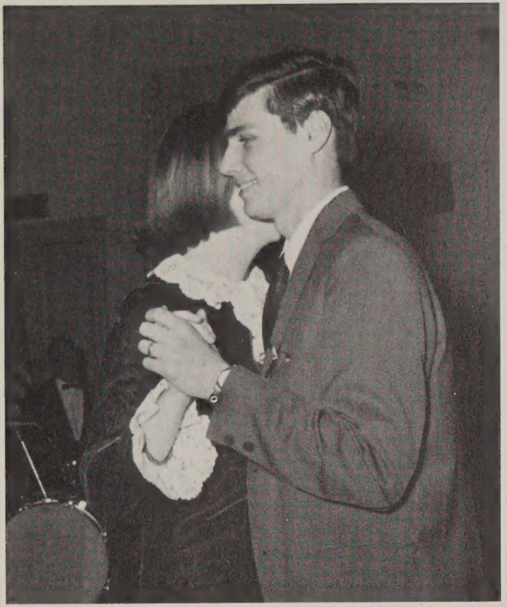


Sorry about that--but . . .!

What was that?

What they do now?

1968



The Mr. and Mrs.

THAT WAS A GOOD ONE!

WILL SOMEBODY PLEASE SMILE?

He's not 21, yet.

A Night for Fun . . .

. . . And Dance.

It started Like this . . .

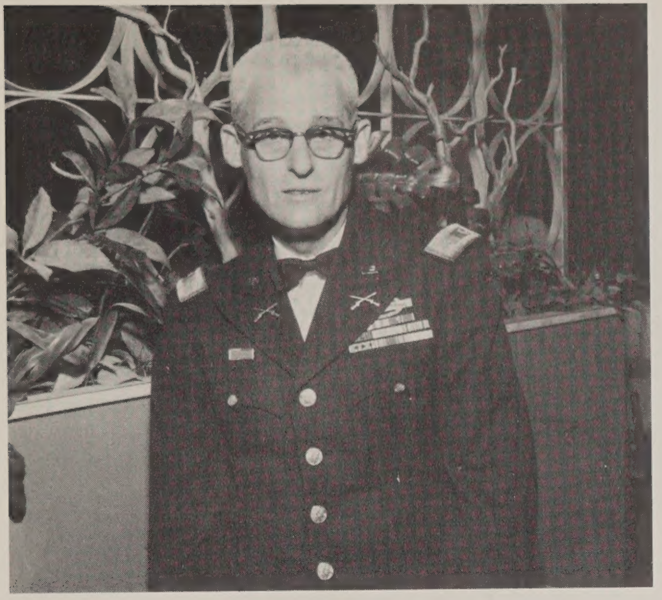
A new step?

His first Prom as headmaster.

Everybody Happy?

Enough Coke for Everyone?

SOME ENCHANTED EVENING



Major Stuart, our favor giver.

Enjoying the evening.

Why waltz?

'Ow! That's my foot.

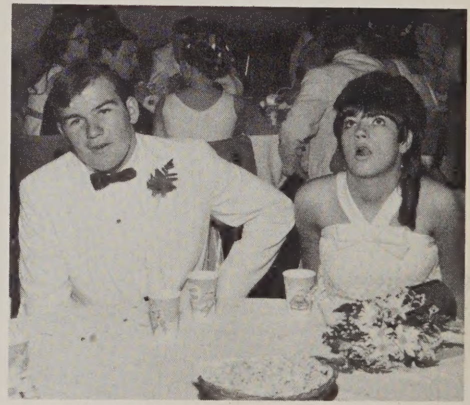
Enchanting Couple.

Everybody's Happy.

Enjoying the night out.

'CHEESE!'

Enjoying a Waltz.



Something Wrong?

A Steady Couple.

Happiness is enjoying the evening.

There is nothing like a waltz.

Everyone smile!

Who needs men?

Wonder what the boys said!

At least look happy.

. . . And ended like this.

FANEUIL HALL, JUNE 4, 1968
Charlestown High School Graduation, Class of '68'

CHARLESTOWN HIGH SCHOOL'S GRADUATION EXERCISES WERE SPLENDID THIS YEAR. THERE WERE MORE AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS OF ACHIEVEMENT AWARDED THAN IN PREVIOUS YEARS, AND MORE STUDENTS ARE GOING ON TO COLLEGE THAN EVER BEFORE. OUR CLASS HAD REALLY A SENSE OF ACHIEVEMENT AND HAD SOMETHING TO BE VERY PROUD OF, THEY WERE CHANGING THEIR WHOLE LIVES FROM THAT MOMENT ON AND NEVER ONCE DID THEY REGRET IT.

ONLY ONE THING HURT A LITTLE, AND THAT WAS THE FACT THAT TONIGHT MARKED THE LAST TIME YOU WERE TO SEE MANY OF YOUR FRIENDS THAT WERE MADE WHILE GROWING UP TOGETHER ALL THROUGH SCHOOL. BUT IT ONLY HURTS FOR A LITTLE WHILE, FOR NOW WE MUST GO OUT INTO THE ADULT WORLD AND MAKE NEW FRIENDS, AND GET ALONG WITH THEM JUST AS EASY AS IT WAS TO GET ALONG WITH EACH OTHER. HOPEFULLY, WE ALL CAN DO IT.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
